As per this policy, Compassionate appointments can be made up to a maximum of 5% of vacancies falling under direct recruitment quota of Category III/IV Entry Level Posts.
The applicant should have the educational qualification for the required posts. Appointments are to be made only if such dependent is eligible and suitable for the entry level post in all respects as per the provisions of FCI Staff Regulations,1971. However, in exceptional cases the qualification, experience etc. may be relaxed by the appointing authority at his discretion taking into account the merit of each case.
Further, the total number of applications/prima facie eligible candidates seeking appointment under compassionate grounds, zone wise are as mentioned above.
